Surprised by nature

The Vigurs, the Walters and the Torrents recently spent a wonderful weekend away together in Dorset to celebrate a special birthday, surrounded by gorgeous nature. One afternoon, after a swim, James and Martha were walking back to the house. Curiosity got the better of James, so on the way he decided to take a slightly different route. As he turned down a new path, he suddenly found himself face to face with a deer standing right in front of him, looking straight back at him. As he whispered or hissed, "Martha, come look...", the single deer was suddenly joined by three others. But the moment Martha approached, the whole group quickly scarpered into the trees.

It is a lovely little moment that makes you think about how often we go about our days feeling entirely alone or unobserved, only to discover that we are surrounded. It brings to mind the imagery of that classic hymn, "As the deer pants for the water, so my soul pants after you" (inspired by Psalm 42:1). Often, we think of our faith journey as us actively searching, straining, or panting after God.

Yet, there is another side to the coin. Sometimes, even when we are not actively looking for Him, we are being looked at, cared for, and watched over by a loving God. He sees us on our detour paths, in our quiet moments, and in the middle of our everyday routines. He is attentive to us long before we realise He is there. Let's take comfort in knowing that we are never out of His sight. Whether we are eagerly seeking Him or just wandering down an unexpected path, He is watching over us with steadfast love and support.

Father God, thank You that Your eyes are always on us, even when we are distracted or unaware of Your presence. Forgive us for the times we feel isolated or try to navigate life entirely on our own strength. Remind us this week that we are deeply seen, wonderfully cared for, and constantly supported by Your grace. May we rest in Your watchful eye as we continue to build Your church and live out our faith right here in Iver and beyond. Amen.

Praying for the Nation

Lifting our nation to God, together.

Starting on Sunday 4th October and led by Sharon's passion for prayer, we are embarking on a renewed focus dedicated to lifting our nation up to God. As a church committed to simply serving Jesus, and with a UK population of around 70 million facing unique challenges, our call to pray is more vital than ever as we unite in the weeks and months ahead.

Farewell to Robert & Carole

On Sunday 11th October, we will be joining our brothers and sisters at St. Peter's to say farewell to Robert who, after 13 years, will be retiring as Vicar of Iver Parish. We are so grateful for his service as he and Carole prepare to move away to Dorset.

Please join us for this special occasion starting with a 10am service on Sunday 11th October at St. Peter's, which will be followed by a bring-and-share lunch in the St. Peter's Centre. Please speak to Teresa to confirm your place. We would love to see you there!

Please remember them and the church in your prayers during this time of transition.

Praise and Prayer points.

Though the fig tree does not bud and there are no grapes on the vines, though the olive crop fails and the fields produce no food, though there are no sheep in the pen and no cattle in the stalls, yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will be joyful in God my Saviour.
