King's News

24th November & 1st December 2024

Dates for your festive diaries...

Alongside our Sunday services in Advent, where we'll be exploring the Christmas story as part of a much bigger story, we have a range of special activities and services for you to enjoy and invite people to...

Monday 25th November | King's Friends Christmas Crafts in King's Church building, 2pm-4pm

Wednesday 27th November | King's Place Christmas Craft Sale (Money raised will go to Langley Institute of Ministry) in King's Church building, 2pm-4pm

Thursday 28th November | Christmas Wreath Making (Numbers limited please book with the Church Office) in King's Church building, 7pm (donations to the "Community Support" project)

Wednesday 18th December | King's Place Christmas Musical Special featuring Anne & Peter Torrent in King's Church building, 2pm-4pm

Saturday 21st December | King's Contemporary Carols with Maria Bond speaking, music, readings, family crafts, mulled wine and mince pies in Iver Village Hall, 5.30pm-6.30pm

Wednesday 25th December - All Age Christmas Day Celebration Service with James speaking in Iver Village Hall, 10.30am

As we enter our Advent journey, may you pause on the journey and be thankful. Amidst the rush may you find rest. As demands and pressures rise around you, may you know the reality that the Arms of Almighty God enfold you and hold you safe.

Malcolm Duncan, Nite Blessings
