Holy Spirit says...

The young people in our church have been considering the wonderful history of the early church. Peter, James, Stephen, Paul and Barnabas - all men filled with the Holy Spirit, establishing the church. Often these men would go about their daily lives responding to people needs, preaching, teaching, travelling to share the truth about Jesus. By prayer and the Holy Spirit they knew instinctively what to do and how to live. However as we discover in the book Acts, the Holy Spirit can be very specific in what he tells the church leaders to do: the Holy Spirit says, set apart for me Barnabas; the two of them sent on their way by the Holy Spirit; the Holy Spirit said, don't go to this place, go to that place.

Let's pray, dear Lord, teach me to do your will. I know you've called me to serve you, but I don't know what to do next. I want to be led by the Holy Spirit, so I can live out the special purpose you have for me. I seek you today, Father. Let your good Spirit guide me.

Isaiah 30:21 reads, "And your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, 'This is the way, walk in it,' when you turn to the right or when you turn to the left." Sometimes I don't know which way to go. Help me hear the Holy Spirit's voice. Teach me how to slow down and take a break from the noise of the world in order to hear you clearly. Help me discern your voice above all others and trust where you lead me.

When I get impatient, thank you for reminding me to seek the fruits of the Spirit, including patience and faithfulness. I know you are with me, and I will continue listening as you direct me to take the next step. Thank you for giving me the Holy Spirit to lead me. In Jesus' name, I pray, Amen.
