Being a Neighbour

Scripture Reading: Luke 10:29-37

"Which of these three do you think was a neighbour to the man who fell into the hands of robbers?" Luke 10:36

There are two stories in this Bible passage: the parable about the man beaten by robbers, and the story about Jesus and the expert in the law. The main question from the legal expert was "Who is my neighbour?" And the main question from Jesus was "In this story, who was being a neighbour?"

Without saying it was the Samaritan, the legal expert admitted that the neighbour was the one who showed mercy. The Samaritan showed mercy to the beaten man in at least three ways:

He opened his heart. "When he saw him, he took pity on him." The traveller saw a fellow human in need, and he cared. The injured man's life mattered.

He opened his schedule. "He went to him and bandaged his wounds. . . ." He set aside his own plans to help his neighbour, to the point of getting blood on his hands.

He opened his wallet. Bringing the injured man to a safe place, the Samaritan paid for his care and even said he would pay later for additional care that might be needed.

Of course, in this story the priest and the Levite did not look good. They knew what to do, and they failed to act. We need to admit that there is some part of the "priest and Levite" in most of us. How often do we see people in need and conveniently look the other way?

Dear Jesus, you call us to open our hearts and lives to our neighbors, and especially to those in need. Forgive us when we fail. Help us to love as you love us. Amen.

Listen Again:

At King's Church Iver we love to hear God's word, to be changed by it and put it into action. We have a number of gifted speakers in the church and benefit from some fantastic guest speakers. Head to www.kingschurchiver.org/30/Talks to find all our Sunday sermons that are recorded each week...

Praise and Prayer points.

Matthew 9: 37-38 (NIV)

Then he said to his disciples, "The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field."

Give thanks for the natural and spiritual harvest.

Pray for the farmers as they bring in the harvest.

Pray for our speakers as they prepare their sermons every week.

Pray for Tear Fund and its partners as they provide clean water for communities.

Pray for our political leaders at this difficult times.

A morning of extended worship, prayer
and His presence

"Give praise to the Lord, proclaim his name; make known among the nations what he has done. Sing to him, sing praise to him; tell of all his wonderful acts." Psalm 105: 1-2 (NIV)
