King's News.

19th & 26th October 2025

"Good morning, Your Majesty"

I recently attended a reception at Clarence House to celebrate the £50 million raised for charitable causes by Duchy Organic products since 2009, through the King Charles III Charitable Fund. This was my third meeting with His Majesty King Charles III through my work at Waitrose, and it's always a pleasure to greet the Monarch with "very nice to see you Sir." The late September morning in London was surprisingly warm and sunny. The King's arrival in the garden was remarkably understated, without the usual fanfare associated with a member of the Royal Family – though, of course, we were in his back garden. It was a truly memorable morning.

Reflecting on the experience, I was struck by the realisation that while meeting the King was amazing, I serve an even greater King: Jesus, the King of Kings. His is the name above all names, a beautiful Saviour and glorious Lord—Immanuel, God with us, blessed Redeemer, and the living Word.

Imagine a similar gathering in a beautiful garden, but instead of the King of England, it's King Jesus arriving. Would there be a triumphant fanfare? Would people throw down their cloaks as they did during his entry into Jerusalem? Would a choir of angels sing? Would his presence be so overwhelming you'd have to hide your face, or would you simply fall to the floor, allowing his grace and peace to shine upon you?

Revelation 1: 9-18 offers a glimpse of King Jesus through John's vision:

"Son of man, dressed in a robe reaching down to his feet and with a golden sash around his chest. The hair on his head was white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes were like blazing fire. His feet were like bronze glowing in a furnace, and his voice was like the sound of rushing waters. In his right hand he held seven stars, and coming out of his mouth was a sharp, double-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining in all its brilliance. When I saw him, I fell at his feet as though dead. Then he placed his right hand on me and said: "Do not be afraid. I am the First and the Last. I am the Living One; I was dead, and now look, I am alive for ever and ever!"

Jesus, King of Kings and Lord of Lords, I bow before Your majesty and power. You are the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End, the One who reigns forever. Rule in my heart and let Your peace and justice reign in the world. Deliver me from sin, guide me in truth, and protect me from every evil. I surrender my life and all that I have to Your kingship. May Your kingdom come and Your will be done on earth as it is in heaven. I place my trust in You today and always. Amen.
