Farewell to Mick & Veronica...

Last Sunday, we bid farewell to Mick and Veronica's as cherished members of King's Church Iver. For those unaware, Mick and Veronica are embarking on a new adventure, swapping Iver Heath for County Antrim in Northern Ireland. There, they will become part of Antrim Coast Vineyard Church, coincidentally transitioning from one family member in church leadership to another! Yes, that's right, Pete's older sister Ruth, serves on the leadership team there, alongside her husband Rick!

These two remarkable individuals have been integral to our church family for 40 years, becoming true legends through their active participation in every facet of church life, both within and outside our building. Their contributions have been countless: from shared meals, cycling, sewing, and camping, to violin making, growing vegetables, engaging in Bible study and prayer, painting, childminding, befriending, celebrating family weddings, teaching Sunday school, performing in Christmas chorals, leading family services, acting in nativity and home group sketches and so much more.

To say we will miss them is a profound understatement; their absence will be felt in countless ways. Yet, we take comfort in our amazing God, who goes before them and continues to guide their paths. As James reminded us a couple of weeks ago, Romans 8:28 states, "And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose." And these two truly love God with all their hearts.

I think it's safe to say that "Leaning on the Everlasting Arms" will never be played, led, or sung quite the same way Mick has done within our worship team over the years. I recall leading the song a few years ago, early in my time here, with a rather reflective vibe. Our dear friend Betty, now in Glory, told me after the service in her very unique and special way, "I much prefer it when Mick does that song!"

Father God, we thank you for Mick and Veronica, and for all they have contributed to our church family over so many years. We are grateful for their unwavering support and commitment to our church here in Iver. As they embark on this new adventure, we pray that you go before them and prepare this next chapter as you see fit. Remind them each day that you are with them and always there for them. Father, we pray for their journeys this week, that they be smooth and free of problems. Jesus, we ask that you surround their entire family as they adapt to a new normal - Pete, Kate, and the boys, as well as Ruth, Rick, and the kids. It will feel different for a while, but may they trust in you and be reminded that they are only a FaceTime call away. Lord, help them remember to lean into your everlasting arms as they make this transition, and remind them of your daily care. May they continue to praise the mighty name of Jesus, the lifter of their heads, the rock of their salvation, and may they always remember, God, that all their days are in your faithful hands. Amen.

Will

Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go.
