King's News.

28th June & 5th July 2026

Be intentional about your encounter with the Lord...

A few weeks ago, Will, one of our Elders, was leading our worship time and Joseph his son wanted to be near his Dad - nothing unusual about that! Then with no thought about the social appropriateness during a period of worship he manoeuvred his little red chair right next to him and stood on it. After his presence did not secure his father's attention, he proceeded to remove the microphone from the boom in front of his lips. His attempts were soon thwarted by Pete, another Elder, who manhandled him skilfully to the back of the hall!

James had already reminded us of the night-time encounter the Pharisee Nicodemus had with Jesus (John 3). He had come to seek the Teacher, even though he was ignoring certain social conventions in doing so.

I couldn't fail to see the link between these two 'encounters'. Like Nicodemus, the high ranking religious leader, who was determined to meet with Jesus, Joseph had made up his mind and wanted to get as close to his Dad as possible, he wanted his attention, and would not be put off by even an act of holy worship! I wonder whether we are as eager to come into Father's presence, to sit at his feet or be held in his arms? Often we allow so many things to hold us back.

The thought I leave with you is 'don't settle for the seemingly good and neglect the very best'. Be intentional about getting into our Heavenly Father's presence, He has made this so possible (Hebrews 4:14-16). Your encounter could change everything!

Heavenly Father please forgive us that we are often distracted by things, others, or self doubt and we miss out on the very best of all. Help us this week and in the weeks to come, to set aside precious time to be with you and experience the greatest experience of all - meeting with you. Amen.

Therefore, since we have a great high priest who has ascended into heaven, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold firmly to the faith we profess. For we do not have a high priest who is unable to empathise with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet he did not sin. Let us then approach God's throne of grace with confidence, so that we may receive mercy and find grace to help us in our time of need.

HEBREWS 4:14-16

Nobody meets Jesus and stays the same:
ENCOUNTERS THAT CHANGE
everything.
