One Lord, One Hope

On Sunday, we had the privilege of joining together with our brothers and sisters at St Peter's Church to say a warm farewell to Robert and Carole Gooding as they prepare for their next chapter. It was a wonderful reflection of the unity we share across the churches in Iver, gathering as one family to worship the Lord in whom we all believe and place our trust.

There was a moment during the communion service that captured this so beautifully. The church was filled to capacity, and as the song "My Jesus, My Saviour" echoed through the space, light poured brightly through the stained-glass windows. Streams of people moved forward together to receive communion from Robert and Carole. Looking out at the church was a visible picture of "the work of Your hands", filling hearts with joy as we stood together in faith.

It served as a powerful reminder that regardless of denomination or worship style, we are bound together by the same Saviour who gave everything for us, declaring with one voice that "nothing compares to the promise I have in You". As Paul reminds us in Ephesians 4:4-5, "There is one body and one Spirit... one Lord, one faith, one baptism."

On behalf of all of us at King's, we want to thank Robert and Carole deeply for their faithful service, love, and ministry among us as they step into this new season and move away. We pray that they would know that wherever this next path leads, the Lord remains their constant "comfort" and "tower of refuge and strength". May He bless them, protect them, and go ahead of them into all that lies next.

Father God, thank You for the beauty of Your diverse and united Church. Forgive us for the times we focus on our differences rather than our shared hope in Jesus. Thank You for Robert and Carole and for their ministry in our community. Bless them richly in this next chapter, and bind our churches in Iver ever closer together, that through our love and unity, Your name may be glorified. Amen.
